Length: campaign length = 33 hours "Space Travel" is a fantastic top down sci-fi shooter, that lures you in with well, stellar visuals. You are not, however, expecting a space simulator, as it's rather a classic side scroller, where you need to complete stages with your ship and fly over the asteroids that you encounter on your path. THE AUSTRALIAN Tax Office is warning taxpayers of a "significant" increase in interest charged on debts owing the federal government. On average, the ATO is now collecting interest on debts owed for federal government services at 9.5 per cent, up from just over 7 per cent in 2012. The figures emerged as the federal government is expected to announce today that the temporary 0.5 per cent tax cut will be extended for an extra year, amid claims it has been a "complete flop". Labor has claimed the extension will allow the Coalition to claim the credit for the 0.5 per cent cut during the next election but it will cost the budget $2 billion. The ATO said a total of $2.7 billion was now being collected in interest for the federal government but has warned that was not because of the tax cut. "This data is a little bit old, but we have seen an increase in the collection of interest on federal government debt in the last few years," a spokeswoman said. "Our analysis shows that about $2.7 billion of interest is now being collected. However, interest was not the single most significant factor in the increase." ATO figures show that the average debt being collected has risen every year since 2008 but the amount owed on average has also increased every year since 2008. The figures show debts can now be over $1 million, with the average being just under $300,000. About one-

January 20, 2011 Now that the Six Flags over Texas and Universal Studios Singapore's attractions have opened for the year, we can safely assume that the coming months will be comparatively more busy. Hence, we thought it would be a good idea to compile a list of top attractions that has just opened and those that are still yet to open! Now that the Six Flags over Texas and Universal Studios Singapore's attractions have opened for the year, we can safely assume that the coming months will be comparatively more busy. Hence, we thought it would be a good idea to compile a list of top attractions that has just opened and those that are still yet to open! To start things off, we'd like to bring attention to the Orlando Magic's Disney Sky Ranch -- just outside of Orlando -- which opened its doors earlier this month with 10 rides, a large arcade and beautiful views of Disney's Epcot. Since it has been some time since we last posted on it, we figured it would be a fine opportunity to bring our readers up to date. So, here is our cover story for this week's PerfectforPlanning newsletter. Orlando Magic Disney Sky Ranch is located just north of Orlando at the quadrant of State Road 518 and State Road 535. It is situated close to the world-class theme parks, excellent dining and shopping establishments as well as Orange County and the Space Coast and little else. Right now, visitors can either drive or take a shuttle bus to Disney Sky Ranch. In addition to covering a theme of Disney's, the only entertainment offered is Disney's sporting events, more specifically a soccer field, NBA court, a golf course and a 10-court "e-sports" playing field that was built especially for championship video games. Said the park's general manager, John Caracciario, "Hopefully, we will be able to build a 10-story hotel in the park a couple years, after the Ritz-Carlton." With Disney's huge amount of pending projects, we are sure to hear more of his plans for the near future. When the Orlando Magic opened in 2002, they set a new benchmark for theme park building. They not only built a huge arena in which to house their basketball games, but also built suites, a sports luxury village and a waterpark. The Magic have managed to keep
