A Video Game Review by G3G EA BLITZ By Tito The game is a bit disappointing to me. This game just seems too easy in my opinion. I mean, at some points the game does have a minimal amount of difficulty but at other points you will say, "do I really have to do this" I read the story before I played this game and you can tell this is more of a fantasy sports game where you have to compete for the most points, instead of really playing a RPG. My initial reaction when playing the demo: "Well I guess this is what the game is going to be like" I played through the demo and I ran across the scenario and by the time I finished the game I was completely lost. I don't mind the camera controls, but the amount of times I ran across some type of terrain while running, or characters while running. I remember those types of games, but it wasn't there, so I kept moving. It was easy. The graphics were very boring to me. All I saw was pixels moving, instead of sprites and 3D environments. I wanted some type of background to kind of make the area feel more real. When you can't play multiplayer with people in your house, you just have to wait until you get your server out of maintenance. When I waited I really enjoyed it when I finally got on, but then after playing a good amount of time, I just decided to turn it off. I'm pretty sure I'm going to try and finish this game soon, but I'm not sure I can put up with the boredom that I'm going to have to deal with. Pros: The graphics are okay The graphics are okay Cons: Easy to play, boring to look at Easy to play, boring to look at Game Rank: 8.8 8.8 GAME RANK SCORE: 8.8 GAME-Z By HollyP This game is the whole package. As soon as I started playing the game, I was intrigued. The graphics are amazing, one of the best I've seen for an indie game. The music really makes you feel like you are in another world, and it fits well. The gameplay bff6bb2d33

In addition, because the game is aimed at a broad range of players, a number of the elements that have been added have been removed or reorganized to suit beginner players. Here's another one, tho I kinda like this one a lot, and it's a bit more of a long of a quote than the normal ones I make... errrrr... entertain us? :D Feedback is always appreciated!

"This was my second time playing Take A Stand: The Fear. After completing all five modes, I made it halfway through the second mode. After reading the other reviews, I feel like most people just like 3 or 4 modes, but, if you look at my gameplay video above, that's kind of thing. I like to keep it fresh, so I love the sense of accomplishment that comes from figuring out a tricky puzzle or journey down a choice-heavy path. While I definitely like the solution variety that more than the length of the game provides, the fact that the challenge is often constrained by the location, I find it difficult to get into. Doing the same thing over and over again in the same spot gets stale. I've always thought that the more choice
