The introduction of “HyperMotion Technology”, along with four additional player traits, will intensify the gameplay of FIFA 22 and raise the bar on player performance and individual ability. A team of more than a dozen of the world’s leading, technical and athletic motion capture experts, along with industry-leading motion capture experts, working in collaboration with FIFA Lead Motion Capture Designer and Technical Animator John Riedle, increased the specificity of the gameplay in FIFA 22. For more information on "HyperMotion Technology," please visit fifa.com/playermotion. “FIFA 22” – A Powerful and Authentic Introduction of Tactical Football Gameplay for PC, PlayStation®4 and Xbox One™ New Immersive Cover Art Features a Dynamic Arena Kit and Real-Life Player Visuals More than 60 New Player Traits from Real-Life Players New Post-Match Special Moments – Teams Celebrate wins and a legendary comeback is witnessed at full intensity as teammates celebrate a goal scored by one of their players, while another watches on in surprise, in all-new photorealistic moments, only possible through the power of “FIFA 22.” Reworked Player Traits – More natural and intuitive passing animations and realistic reactions to key events on the pitch. In addition to the core “Player Traits” system that has been a key pillar of the FIFA brand for over two decades, “FIFA 22” introduces new features such as Acceleration, Deceleration, Agility and Ball Control. Players have more control over the speed of their strikes and passes, while also reacting more naturally to the speed of the ball in combat situations. No Loading Times – “FIFA 22” takes advantage of the improved graphics and gameplay technology of the current generation of consoles to completely eliminate loading times and offers faster, smoother gameplay. “FIFA 22” officially launches on PC, PlayStation®4 and Xbox One™ starting September 27. The complete press release is below. Activision Publishing, a wholly owned subsidiary of Activision Blizzard (NASDAQ: ATVI) and developer of the world’s #1 selling video game franchise, “Call of Duty,” is excited to announce that "FIFA 22" will officially launch on PC, PlayStation®4 and Xbox One™ platforms on September 27.
