A trait of Hermione's from the last couple of movies is her fascination with Muggle clothing. Severus Snape: I'm Hermione's teacher. Hermione: Oh! Like you're my real teacher? Ron: What's her name, again? Snape: She keeps changing it! Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Chapter 14 (Prisoner of Azkaban) She seems to have even more hair, to the point where she can hardly move it properly. She also follows Muggle fashion. "But you can't wear pink underpants or boy's short trousers, you look silly!" Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Chapter 10 (The Sorting Hat) So, why didn't Hermione Black wear Muggle clothing? A: It's because Hermione is the daughter of a Muggle father and a wizard mother. The following clip also gives some information While she was not a Muggle born, she has a wizarding father and a Muggle mother. While it's not shown in either book, but I've read somewhere that Hermione doesn't have Muggle clothing either. She does not have Muggle clothing either. She may have a Muggle mother, but she's also a wizard, and so she has the wizarding robes which also are not Muggle clothing. Hermione was the perfect "girl next door," but her wizard heritage meant her clothing choices

Former Senator David Perdue on Wednesday was acquitted of criminal charges for illegally receiving rent subsidies under the "dark money" nonprofit Civic Institute USA. Perdue was charged along with his then-Chief of Staff Merrill Kelly. The Weekly Standard's Brian Adams reports: The jury was unable to reach a verdict on the conspiracy charges against Perdue. Kelly was acquitted on all counts. The criminal charges against both Perdue and Kelly stem from Perdue's four years as a member of Congress, when he "funded these rent subsidies to firms who hired lobbyists to push his agenda," the indictment reads. The charges were filed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, which suspended Perdue's payments in 2010. According to Courthouse News Service, which was first to report on the verdict, the trial was "expected to last two weeks." Perdue's attorney, Kirk Bartlett, said in a statement that the verdict would have no effect on the pending civil action to revoke Perdue's HUD-administered "civic improvement" subsidies. "It is highly likely that the HUD lawsuit will go forward with or without a criminal verdict," Bartlett wrote. A spokeswoman for the U.S. Attorney's Office, who did not immediately return an email seeking comment, told Courthouse News Service that "sentencing is pending." The criminal charges brought by the U.S. Attorney's Office against Perdue and Kelly stem from their involvement with Civic Group USA, which became a 501(c)(4) nonprofit group in 2002. During Perdue's tenure at the center of a long and expensive federal investigation of possible campaign finance abuses, the government alleged that the group—which at one time totaled some 20 staffers working for Perdue, as well as other lawmakers, among them former Senators Fred Thompson and Trent Lott—was "a virtual extension of his campaign to obtain political influence." Perdue himself was not charged with any wrongdoing. Perdue served as the Chief of Staff for all of Senator Jesse Helms from 1987 to 1989. As a lobbyist at the now-defunct lobbying firm Preston Gates in 1997, Perdue began meeting with HUD officials to discuss "environmental justice" and people
